Could Not Sleep

Suffered With Dyspepsia and Unable to Do Her Work—Completely Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I suffered with dyspepsia and could not do any kind of housework. I was very nervous and could not sleep. I heard so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla that I bought a bottle. I found it gave me relief and I bought six bottles. When I had taken them I was cured. I can now do my housework and can sleep well at night." MARIE HAMES, 1730 Prospect Avenue, Helena, Montana.

"I have found Hood's Sarsaparilla excellent for building up and strengthening the system when it is in a run down or exhausted condition." MRS. SARAH M. SHOOK, Red Lodge, Montana.

If you have decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other. Get Hood's and only Hood's.

STATE OF CONVALESCENTS

Hospital on Punchbowl is Visited by Red Cross Committee.

Everything Found Satisfactory—Small Articles
Needed—Danger of Appetite—An Unfounded Complaint.

At the Red Cross Society's meeting, Mrs. J. N. Wright, Mrs. U. Thompson and Mrs. Jas. Lyle were appointed a committee to visit the convalescent hospital on Punchbowl. They did so the same afternoon. Everything was found in good order, excepting for the need of more sheets, pillow cases and mosquito nets. The patients were cheerful and for the most part thoroughly contented. They sat down to a good supper while the ladies were there. Those left invalided by the 1st New York were happy in the prospect of leaving for home on Tuesday.

The steward's position is no sinecure. He has to be continually on guard to keep the patients with returning appetite from eating articles that would set them back. Some return from their first walk into town carrying vegetables and fruits that are unfit as diet for persons in their condition. One man who violated all caution in this respect has had to go to Buena Vista hospital, where he has since been lying in a critical condition.

A suggestion has been made of an exception to general contentment. The ladies heard a complaint that one man had never received any wine jelly. It was explained, however, that this delicacy was only given to patients in a weak state. The complainant had all along had an appetite for more substantial pabulum.

The committee reported orally to Mrs. H. M. Sewall, president of the society, today.

New Officers.

At a meeting of the Officers' Club held in the Bungalow Sunday, the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year:

President—Lieut. Col. J. H. Soper.

Vice President—Col. J. H. Fisher.

Treasurer—Capt. W. G. Ashley.

Secretary—Capt. T. H. Petrie.

Executive Committee—Maj. McCarthy, Maj. Ziegler, Maj. Cooper, Capt. Smith.

House Committee—Maj. Parry and Maj. McCarthy.

Paucifoto to Remain.

New York, Jan. 12.—A Washington special to the Herald says: Sir Julian Paucifoto, the British ambassador, will remain accredited to the United States for another year, beginning in April. This unusual action on the part of the British government arises from his deep interest in the negotiations for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty and guaranteeing the neutrality of the proposed Nicaraguan canal, with which Sir Julian is so familiar. Sir Julian would naturally have been retired last spring.

Grass on Fire.

A boy playing with firecrackers on Saturday set fire to the grass upon Mr. Desky's "sandpit" lot, at Spencer avenue and Victoria street. The flames ran along to Captain Harry Swinton's fence and would soon have reached his house if a passerby had not given the alarm. A few buckets of water put out the fire. As there was no water in the pipes at the time, a fire getting headway would likely have been disastrous.

The Last Car.

The last cars of the King street line going to Waikiki and Palama pass the Anchor Saloon. The cleverest mixologists in the city are there always to put you up anything you may desire. Drop in and take a drop before you take the car. The celebrated Seattle beer is to be had here on draught. A full line of liquors including the famous A. A. Jesse Moore Whisky etc., always on hand. The most exacting and varied demands can be satisfied. The Anchor Saloon is here to please its patrons.

FELL FORTY FEET.

Grace Beckley Kahua Jumps from a Window.

There was consternation at the Kamehameha Girls' School at about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon when it was learned that Miss Grace Beckley Kahua, a niece of Geo. C. Beckley of the Wilder Steamship Company, had committed suicide by jumping from the library window on the third floor and falling to the cement pavement beneath a distance of about forty feet.

Miss Kahua, a Kamehameha girl herself, had gone to Miss Pope, the principal, and had asked her if the library had been entirely vacated. Upon receiving an answer in the affirmative, she went her sister on an errand and her cousin, who followed her, after a glass of water. Just as the latter was going away, deceased got through the window and jumped. Her cousin caught her dress but was too late.

When found on the ground beneath, deceased gave three or four gasps and was dead. The fall had broken her back, her right clavicle and arm, as well as both wrists. There was a cut across her nose and several bruises appeared on her face.

Deceased was about eighteen years of age. She had been under the doctor's care for several months on account of mental aberrations and, about a month ago, was taken out of school. All her books were denied her and she went to live with her cousins, the Misses Davison, in Manoa Valley. She seemed to recover somewhat but, of course, was closely watched.

On Friday, there was a change for the worse. Deceased kept saying, "something is going to happen tomorrow." On Saturday, she seemed better again, kissed her cousins good-bye at the Montano home and then went up to see her mother who, with her husband, lives back of the Royal Mausoleum in Nuuanu valley. This was about 2 o'clock. She kissed her mother good-bye and then went to Kamehameha School to see the girls. When came the awful death that has been related.

The body was removed to the Beckley home on King street and the funeral took place from there Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Silas Perry of Kamehameha officiating. Both the Kamehameha girls and boys sang and eight of the latter acted as pall-bearers.

Deceased was very popular among her friends and was a favorite at Kamehameha. She was bright in her studies and showed ambition to acquire more knowledge as each day came and went.

During the past two years, Mrs. J. W. Alexander, wife of the editor of the Waynesboro, (Miss.) Times, has, in a great many instances, relieved her baby when in the first stages of croup, by giving it Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. She looks upon this remedy as a household necessity and believes that no better medicine has ever been put in bottles. There are many thousands of mothers in this broad land, who are of the same opinion. It is the only remedy that can always be depended upon as a preventive and cure for croup. 50 cent bottles are for sale by Benson, Smith & Co.
